Once all of you clear this version from Michael then he will send me the final version in a clean copy. I will start the approvals needed. I prefer we do not send a message out at 5pm to the employees. We should shoot for sending it first thing tomorrow at 9am. A 5pm message will not go over as well.

Michael-

Please see attached. This works off the version that had Nick's comments in tracked changes, so it is missing comments from Ben and perhaps others. Again, (b)(5)

Changes are not tracked. Send any final comments to the group in tracked changes ASAP. Flight takes off around 4:50 PM CST.

Thanks everyone.

Michael- I will send to you in next few minutes. I saw comments from Nick and not sure everyone has. I will send to you.

Happy to incorporate comments. Thus far just have Ben's, and then will incorporate Dr. Jacobs, and (b)(5)

Also, per your email below, does this need to be run by DOC? Regardless, as it is already getting on to 4:00, do we still plan on trying to get it out today or first thing tomorrow morning? If the former, I will need to ask the IT folks to stay on late as I believe they typically leave around 4.
